Editorial Design (3Cr)

Dr. Claudia Fortagne

start: Oktober 10th, Thursday 08:45 participants: 15

In this class we will be exploring long-form graphic design. Our focus will be on books, magazines or in general multipage documents. The skills developed are basically creating continuity and variety across a range of pages, presenting different kinds of information in context-appropriate formats. You develop visual sensitivity and competency in graphic communication. You improve your skills in composition and page layout.
This is a design class—not a software training class.
Students will be expected to have, or to develop, the technical and computer skills necessary to complete their projects in InDesign e.g.

The class is taught in English.
